

Songs are a great way to involve students before and after a story. These original songs written by Jacqueline Jules correspond to the theme of DUCK FOR TURKEY DAY, a picture book about a little girl who learns that Thanksgiving is for everyone in America, regardless of where your family is from. They can be sung or recited as a choral poem in the classroom or at storytime.

A HOLIDAY FOR ALL

(tune: Shortnin' Bread)

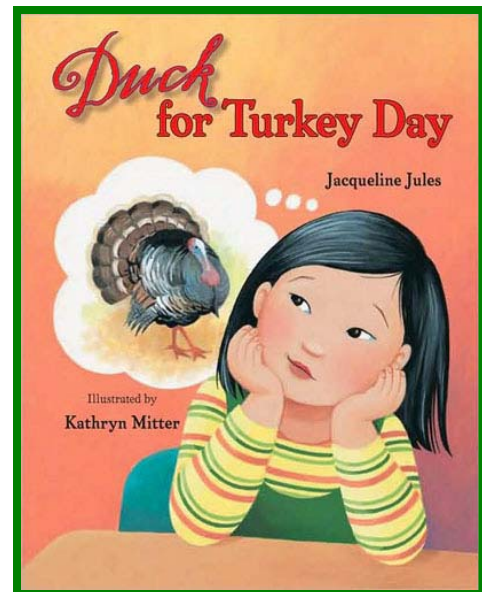

by Jacqueline Jules

More than turkey
More than sauce
On Thanksgiving
Family's boss.

Tofu's fine.
Chicken's cool.
Holidays
Don't have one rule.

Gather round the table
We have a date
To give thanks
And celebrate.

On Thanksgiving
In the fall—
A holiday
For one and all.

THANKSGIVING GARDEN

by Jacqueline Jules

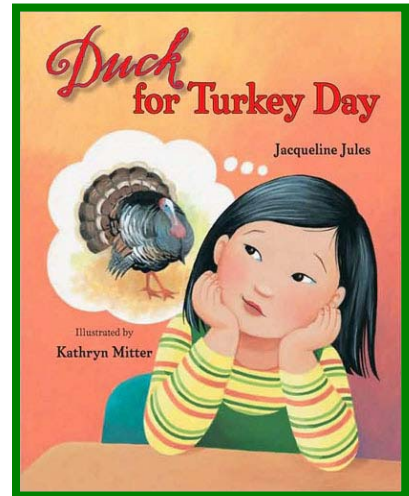

Thanksgiving time, we celebrate
a land with lots of room.
People came from far and wide
to find a place to bloom.

Here we have a garden
with every shade and hue.
So many different colors
create a pleasing view.

Thanksgiving time, we celebrate
a land with lots of room.
People came from far and wide
to find a place to bloom.

Now we have a harvest
to honor in our land.
Children of all faiths and births can hold each other's hand.

Thanksgiving time, we celebrate
a land with lots of room.
People came from far and wide
to find a place to bloom.
