

WHICH JOLENE PERRY HEROINE ARE YOU?

Jolene Perry is a prolific author of young adult fiction. Her heroines are real girls that we all can relate to: from Clara Fielding in Has to Be Love who has big city dreams to Joy Neilson from Stronger Than You Know who just wants a normal life, to Kate Walker from The Summer I Found You who is coming to terms with her new reality and Gabe Osborn from All the Forever Things who is simply trying to get by without too much drama. These girls jump into lakes and ride horses, attend carnivals and prom, but most of all learn what it means to be a true friend—and find a great love. You can wish and dream and sigh alongside these girls, but what if you were actually in one of Jolene Perry’s novels? Who would you be? Take our quiz to find out!

If you answered mostly a's...

You're Clara Fielding from Has to Be Love! You're a talented writer and an excellent student, which could take you very far. You also don't mind getting dirty outside on your ATV or horseback riding through the wilderness. You're stubborn and outspoken when you need to be. Your scars (both mental and physical) are always on your mind. You feel conflicted in the choice in front of you: torn between comfort in the familiarity of your small town and the possibilities of the wider world. No matter what you choose, don't lose sight on your goals and the people who really care about you.

If you answered mostly b's...

You're Joy Neilsons from Stronger Than You Know! Your unique perspective on art sets your work apart, and you're not afraid to try new things, like kung fu. School comes easily to you, so you're able to zone out in class. You're sensitive, brave, and strong. You may have had a hard road until this point in your life, and the work you put in to move forward may seem never ending, but you have the strength in you to move beyond it. You're on a journey of self-discovery—enjoy the ride and don't let your past define you.

If you answered mostly c's...

You're Kate Walker from The Summer I Found You! You like to read and hang out with your friends. You're always ahead on assignments for your English class. You're bubbly, bright, and funny, even if your big mouth sometimes gets you in trouble. As you begin to think about college, you face new challenges—leaving home, being independent, and the responsibilities that come with that—especially with the hard-to-acknowledge complications life throws at you. But you're able to bounce back if you put your mind to it, so don't let a disappointment prevent you from achieving your dreams.

If you answered mostly d's...

You're Gabriella Osborn from All the Forever Things! You have a deep love of all things vintage, your best friend, and the quiet of the cemetery behind your house. Yes, you may have the nickname "Graveyard Gabby" but when things get tough—whether it's a friend having family troubles or a crush needing comfort—you're the one they can depend on. You understand the importance of donuts. It may be hard to put yourself out there when you see others hurting, but you have to take risks to gain rewards, so don't forget to embrace life too.
